

car player in the Indian market, reported its first sales decline during H1 of 2016 after three consecutive growth years. It has also scaled up petrol offerings for most of its models.

Shekhar Viswanathan, vice-chairman and director, Toyota Kirloskar, said, "We want the public to know that we are not here to pollute the environment. This is an interim relief and this is what we had been asking for several months. Every fuel has its own set of drawbacks and this is what needs to be realised by everyone and only then can we claim that the real battle has been won. We have no choice but to accept the cess."

The impact of the ban, however, was not limited to companies manufacturing diesel vehicles of the specified engine capacity. It created challenges for vehicles below 2,000 cc because buyers turned apprehensive about the fate of diesel cars across the country.

Nuvo-Grasim merger fails to impress investors

On Thursday evening, the Birlas had announced a two-step merger in which Aditya Birla Nuvo will be merged with Grasim first and then the financial services business would be hived off from "New Grasim" and listed by May next year. As per the scheme, for every 100 shares in AB Nuvo, an investor will get 30 shares of AB Nuvo, apart from reducing the cross-holdings. "This merger is to play the India growth story," he said.

Retail inflation tops 6%

Food inflation jumped 0.56 percentage points just in a span of one month to 8.35 per cent in July, compared with 7.79 per cent in June. This was despite the fact that inflation in vegetables inched down, though it remained at an elevated level of 14.06 per cent in July, compared with 14.74 per cent in June. The rate of price rise in pulses was up at 27.53 per cent against 26.86 per cent in June. The price pressure in pulses is likely to come down once Kharif crops are harvested. The area under pulses rose to 13.02 million hectares as on August 12 this year against 9.77 million hectares in the corresponding period of the previous financial year.

SBI net down 32%, stock rises

The net interest income rose by 4.2 per cent to ₹14,312 crore during the quarter from ₹13,732 crore in the same period a year ago.

SBI Chairperson Arundhati Bhattacharya said net interest income was affected by a drop in lending rates and rising in bad loans. The bank's net interest margin declined to 2.83 per cent from 2.99 per cent in the same quarter last year.

Gross non-performing assets (GNPAs) slightly up from ₹98,173 crore (6.5 per cent) in March. SBI's gross non-performing assets were ₹56,420 crore (4.29 per cent) a year ago.
